

Every island of Hawaii is magical. The Big Island's offerings include a terrain that spans colored-sand beaches at Papakolea (green) and Punalu'u (black) to lush rainforest and two active volcanoes. The sunny Kona District stretches almost two-thirds of the entire West side of the island of Hawaii—and its beautiful beaches are popular snorkeling sites, among other activities. And best of all, you have an entire week to explore it all.

This west side is where you're headed, to Kōlea, the only condo community in Waikoloa Beach Resort with a beachfront location. Kōlea's private retreat includes the Beach Club Pavilion overlooking Anaeho'omalu Bay, which features a natural lava hot tub, an infinity pool, and a children's pool with a sand bottom and waterfall. You'll have access to everything in the Waikoloa Beach Resort, from the Kings Shops to the two championship golf courses.

You'll be staying in Kōlea 5A, a large, three-bedroom villa that opens up to a small lawn area off the lanai. The kitchen is spacious and is well stocked for all your cooking needs. The great room features large pocket doors that open to the expansive lanai and gives you a seamless transition from the inside to the outside.

On the other side of the villa is the large master bedroom with king-size bed, sitting area and large windows that showcase the lush tropical landscaping. Next to the master bedroom is one of the guest bedrooms, with two twin beds and an attached bath with a tub/shower combo. On the other side of the villa is the guest bedroom with a queen-size bed with attached bath with a walk-in shower.

And, to ensure that you have the perfect look for the islands, you will receive two pairs of Maui Jim sunglasses, a Belgian linen resort kaftan by tracilane.design, and a Tommy Bahama shirt from Williamson & Company.
