

Champagne & Caviar Dreams, Thomas Keller Style at Regiis Ova

Champagne and caviar are just the starting point for this luxe evening at Regiis Ova Caviar & Champagne Lounge in Yountville.

Regiis Ova is the new caviar company founded by our past gala honorary chair and world-renowned chef Thomas Keller and Shaoching Bishop, former CEO of Sterling Caviar and Tsar Nicoulai Caviar. Their spirited pop-up lounge presents a uniquely whimsical approach to caviar hand-selected from the finest sturgeon farm partners.

For this private party, Thomas and his team have dreamed up an evening of delights that starts with a caviar station featuring Ossetra, Supreme and hybrid caviars with all the classic accoutrements, and a passed canapé reception featuring more caviar and other delicacies from the land and sea. Then take a seat to enjoy more than a half-dozen elevated “snacks” such as black truffle grilled cheese, tuna tataki, Ad Hoc buttermilk fried chicken tenders and corn custard with yes, caviar. For the finale, an assortment of desserts. And of course, the wines, both still and sparkling, will be a perfect and worthy accompaniment for the event’s offerings.

An evening of pure decadence for a great cause.
