

No Reservations - Morimoto at The Napa Valley Reserve

4

This lot brings together one of the hardest tables to get in Napa Valley and one of the most-recognized names in the restaurant world. And for this one singular night, General manager Paul Asmuth and his wife, Marilyn (one of our Foundation Board Members), welcome you to join them at The Napa Valley Reserve for an evening of the inspired cuisine of world-famous chef/restaurateur Masaharu Morimoto.

Celebrations at The Napa Valley Reserve are created around the idea that every gathering held on the estate should deliver memories that will last a lifetime. This one will be no exception. This gorgeous 80-acre property is reminiscent of the great wine estates of Europe, with its acres of vineyards, orchards, and gardens. Upon arrival at the members only club, you'll enjoy a wine reception while taking in this idyllic setting.

Then prepare to enjoy the culinary artistry of Iron Chef Masaharu Morimoto. Acclaimed for his seamless integration of Western and Japanese ingredients, Chef Morimoto has cultivated a signature style through exquisite technique and perfectly balanced flavors that positions him as one of today's foremost chefs—and has earned him numerous accolades and awards.

Quite possibly one of the most exclusive, elusive pop-up experiences ever.
